

Family of Officer James Sackett

On May 22, 1970, Sackett, 27, was shot and killed by a sniper while responding to a fake maternity call for help at a home in the 800 block of Hague Avenue, near Selby Avenue and Victoria Street in St. Paul. Investigators believe that Sackett, who had served on the force just 18 months, was not specifically targeted. Sackett was married and the father of four children, the youngest just three weeks old when he was killed. The evening he was shot was his first shift since the birth of his youngest child.

Officer Sackett's family will be attending the trial, which is expected to last 3-5 weeks. The St. Paul Police Federation and MN COPS will be holding a benefit to help offset the costs that the family will incur during the trial.
